FLORALA-FLOMATON CLASH IN "LATE SHOW" Ever see a half-time show before the game starts? Well, the 2,000 fans at the Florala-Flomaton game got their chance Friday night. It seems that the District office in Enterprise forgot to assign referees for the contest, and when kick-off time rolled around at 7:30 everyone was there except the ref's. After several phone calls, the fan's got word that some referees were available in Elba, and would come immediately. So, to kill the dullness both bands went on the field prior to the games and did their half-time shows. The referees arrived at 9:37 p.m., and the game lasted until past mid-night.
